The Data Privacy Act ("DPA") of 2012

Data privacy - acknowledging the rights of Data Subjects over their data and enforcing the responsibilities of entities who process them.
DISCRIMINATION

People are discriminated because of their race, color or ethnic origin

Stigmatization
Unfair Decision-Making
Based on Profiling

Personal information such as marital status, religious or political affiliations affects the decision-making of companies in various cases.

In employment, some experience difficulties in getting hired while others are unfairly dismissed.
Sources of Data used in Profiling

Types of data used in profiling:

- Internet search and browsing history
- Education and professional data
- Data derived from existing customer relationships
- Data collected for credit-worthiness assessments
- Financial and payment data
- Consumer complaints or queries
- Driving and location data
- Property ownership data
- Information from store cards and credit cards
- Consumer buying habits
- Wearable tech, such as fitness trackers
- Lifestyle and behavior data gathered from mobile
- Social network information
- Video surveillance systems
- Internet of things
- Telematics
Access to personal information such as name, date of birth, address, or email address can result to fraudsters victimizing individuals.
Public school teacher in debt because of identity theft

Published February 26, 2016 10:48pm

A public school teacher may be a victim of identity theft as he owes three banks P800,000 for loans he did not apply for, according to a report by John Consulta on GMA-7’s “24 Oras” on Friday.

Mark Joseph Lontoc said he received notifications from three banks saying that he borrowed a total of P800,000 in salary loans. He denied applying for the loans.

However, Lontoc remembered posting a photo of his Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) ID online.

akong pagpasok ko po sa public school, pagbigay ng papel ko, pinost dito po sa FB (Facebook) sa sobrang tuwa ko po,” he said.

“Wala naman akong ginagawang masama,” he added.
Loss of Reputation

People have experienced stalking or harassment online, trouble with family members, lost a job or educational opportunity because of something posted online, and even as grave as physical danger.
CANISTER SCANDAL: 90-day suspension of 2 docs, nurse ends

Helen Flores, Chio Ong () - September 6, 2008 - 12:00am

Health Undersecretary Alexander Padilla said yesterday the three medical practitioners who were linked to the “canister scandal” at a Cebu hospital were allowed to go back to work after serving the three-month suspension imposed on them by the Department of Health (DOH).

Dr. Philipps Leo Arias, Dr. Joseph Montecillo and nurse Carmenia Sapio reported for duty at the government-run Vicente Sotto Memorial Medical Center sometime last month.

Padilla said the DOH has already imposed enough sanctions on the three and that the matter is already in the hands of the Ombudsman.
Loss of Autonomy

Top Gear sorry for identifying wrong suspect in road rage

MANILA - The editor of Top Gear Philippines has apologized for posting on its Facebook page a link to the social media account of the wrong person being linked to a fatal road rage incident in Quiapo, Manila last Monday.

Top Gear editor Vernon Sarne took full responsibility for posting the link to the Facebook profile of Nelson Punzalan, who had been apparently falsely accused as the killer of cyclist Mark Vincent Geraldte. Top Gear also posted a photo of Punzalan’s car, which was coincidentally a Hyundai Eon model, similar to the car in the incident.

“I was responsible for posting the photo of Mr. Punzalan’s vehicle, and I realize now that I shouldn’t have done so. I accept full responsibility. This is all on me,” Sarne said.

“The buck stops here. This is all my fault,” he added.

July 25, 2016 – A jostle in the road between a car driver and cyclist led to a fist fight ended into a gun shooting, leaving the cyclist dead at P. Casal Street in Quiapo, Manila. Suspect left the scene of the crime leaving the dead victim lying on the street.

The Data Privacy Act makes it mandatory for all data collectors — whether public or private — to protect the security, integrity and confidentiality of all the personal information they collect. By doing this, we help usher in a truly knowledge-driven economy.

Senator Edgardo Angara
By 2040, the Philippines is a prosperous middle class society where no one is poor. People live long and healthy lives and are smart and innovative.

The country is a high-trust society where families thrive in vibrant, culturally diverse, and resilient communities.

Rights of the data subject
The Rights of the Data Subject

- Right to be informed - Why are you processing my data?
- Right to object - I don’t want to do this survey anymore? Stop videotaping me.
- Right to access - What do you know about me?
- Right to correct/rectify - I want to amend/correct my details.
- Right to block/remove - Remove me from your database.
- Right to data portability - I want a copy of my data.
- Right to file a complaint
- Right to be indemnified
Right to OBJECT

When does the right apply?

• processing is based on consent (includes direct marketing)
• processing is based on legitimate interest

If processing is for direct marketing purposes:

• PIC must stop processing upon receipt of data subject’s objection.
Right to OBJECT

If a data subject objects/withholds consent, the PIC shall no longer process the personal data, unless the processing is:

1. Pursuant to a subpoena;
2. For obvious purposes, i.e. contract, employer-employee relationship, etc.; or Right to ACCESS

Reasonable access to the following:

1. Contents of personal data;
2. Sources of personal data;
3. Names & addresses of recipients of the personal data;
4. Manner by which such data were processed;
5. Reasons for the disclosure of the personal data;
6. Information on automated processes (data will or likely to be made as the sole basis for decisions significantly affecting the data subject);
7. Date when personal data was last accessed/modified; and
8. Name/address of the PIC.
Right to ERASURE OR BLOCKING

When does the right apply?

a. When personal data is:
   • incomplete, outdated, false, or unlawfully obtained
   • used for unauthorized purpose
   • no longer necessary for the purpose

b. Data subject withdraws consent/objects to the processing, and there is no other legal ground/legitimate interest for processing

c. Processing is unlawful

d. PIC or PIP violated the rights of the data subject.
Right to RECTIFICATION

• Right to dispute the inaccuracy or error in the personal data and have the PIC correct it immediately, unless the request is vexatious or otherwise unreasonable.

• If personal data was disclosed to third parties: PIC must inform them of the rectification upon reasonable request of the data subject.
Right to DATA PORTABILITY

• Right to obtain from the PIC a copy of personal data in an electronic/ structured format that is commonly used/allows further use by the data subject.

• What are the conditions for this right to apply?
  ✓ personal data requested concerns the data subject making the request;
  ✓ personal data is processed electronically; and ✓ processing is based on consent or contract.
Right to DAMAGES

• The data subject shall be indemnified for any damages sustained due to such inaccurate, incomplete, outdated, false, unlawfully obtained or unauthorized use of personal data, taking into account any violation of his or her rights and freedoms as data subject.

• See: NPC Circular No. 16-04 – Rules of Procedure
General Data Privacy Principle

legitimate purpose

lawful, objective, justifiable, reasonable, authorized, genuine, appropriate, statutory, proper, accepted, sanctioned, fair
Legitimate Purpose Consent

The data subject agrees to the collection and processing of personal information

- Freely given
- Specific
- Informed indication of will

Evidenced by written, electronic or recorded means:
- signature
- opt-in box/clicking an icon
- sending a confirmation email
- oral confirmation
Legitimate Purpose Consent

- Opt-in
- Silence, pre-ticked boxes or inactivity does not constitute consent.
Freely given, specific, and informed

• Consent means giving data subjects genuine choice and control over how a PIC uses their data.

• Consent should be unbundled from other terms and conditions (including giving granular consent options for different types of processing) wherever possible.

• Clear affirmative action means someone must take deliberate action to opt in.
Is consent always needed?

• No. Consent is just one criterion for lawful processing of both personal and sensitive personal information.

• Consent will not always be the most appropriate basis for processing personal data.

• PICs should choose the lawful basis that most closely reflects the true nature of the relationship with the individual and the purpose of the processing.
Processing which may not need consent:
What are the alternatives to consent?

For processing of personal information:

- Contract: to supply goods or services they have requested, or to fulfil your obligations under an employment contract. This also includes steps taken at their request before entering into a contract.

- Compliance with a legal obligation: if you are required by law to process the data.

- Vital interests: you can process personal information if it is necessary to protect the data subject’s life and health.

- Public task: if you need to process personal information to carry out public function or service and you have a legal basis for the processing.

- Legitimate interests: for the private sector, you can process personal data without consent if you have a genuine and legitimate reason, unless this is overridden by fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.
What are the alternatives to consent?

For processing of sensitive personal information:

- Existing law and regulation: you can process sensitive personal information (SPI) when there is a regulatory enactment which requires the processing.

- Protection of life and health: to protect someone’s life – the data subject or another person, and the data subject is not legally/physically able to express his consent.

- Public organizations: refers to processing done by non-stock, non-profit organizations, cooperatives, and the like, where processing is only confined and related to the bona fide members.

- Medical treatment: when processing is carried out by a by a medical practitioner or a medical treatment institution, and there is adequate level of protection.

- Lawful rights and interests: when processing is necessary to protect lawful rights and interests of in court proceedings, in the establishment/ exercise/defense of legal claims, or when provided to government or public authority.
Special Cases

The DPA shall not apply to specified information but only to the minimum extent of collection, access, use, disclosure or other processing necessary to the purpose, function, or activity concerned:

1. Information of public concern
2. Personal information for journalistic, artistic or literary purpose
3. Personal information for research purpose
Special Cases

4. Information necessary in order to carry out the functions of public authority

5. Information necessary for banks, other financial institutions, to the extent necessary to comply with applicable laws

6. Personal information originally collected from residents of foreign jurisdictions in accordance with the laws of those foreign jurisdictions, which is being processed in the Philippines.
General Data Privacy Principle

proportionality

- reciprocal
- equitable
- commensurate
- corresponding
- even
- just
- comparative
- rational
- correlative
- comparable
The Bigger role of Data Privacy in the Transportation industry

...privacy reaches far beyond simple confidentiality – which is crucial in the transportation sector as the data collected may often lead to actual or perceived privacy violations.
Malicious or criminal attacks cause the most data breaches. Pie Chart 2 provides a summary of the main root causes of data breaches on a consolidated basis for organizations in all countries. Forty-seven percent of incidents involved a malicious or criminal attack, 25 percent were due to negligent employees or contractors (human factor) and 28 percent involved system glitches, including both IT and business process failures.

Pie Chart 2. Distribution of the benchmark sample by root cause of the data breach

- 47% Malicious Attack
- 53% System Glitch
- 28% Human Error

HOW DO PRIVACY BREACHES OCCUR?

- lost or stolen laptops, removable storage devices, or paper records containing personal information

- hard disk drives and other digital storage media (integrated in other devices, for example, multifunction printers, or otherwise) being disposed of or returned to equipment lessors without the contents first being erased

- databases containing personal information being ‘hacked’ into or otherwise illegally accessed by individuals outside of the agency or organization
• employees accessing or disclosing personal information outside the requirements or authorization of their employment

• paper records stolen from insecure recycling or garbage bins

• an agency or organization mistakenly providing personal information to the wrong person, for example by sending details out to the wrong address, and

• an individual deceiving an agency or organization into improperly releasing the personal information of another person.
