TERMS OF REFERENCE
FOR THE PROCUREMENT OF PRINTING SERVICES OF THE 2019 NPC COMPENDIUM

I. BACKGROUND

The National Privacy Commission (NPC) is tasked to inform and educate the public about data privacy, data protection, and fair information rights and responsibilities, as provided in Section 9.c of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of R.A. 10173 or the Data Privacy Act of 2012. In line with this, the Commission initiated the DPO ACE, a 2-3 days course that aims to educate and/or capacitate Data Protection Officer (DPO) on steps required to implement DPA compliance in their respective organization. Participants will be provided with detailed insight into the main provisions of DPA as well as practical guidance on what organizations should start in complying with the requirements of the said Act.

For 2018, the Commission has published a total of 3 memorandum circulars, 2 advisories, several advisory opinions, and commission-issued orders. These documents were produced in order to address the public's concerns and inquiries towards their compliance with the law and mandates of the Commission. As part of the Commission's way in providing easy access to information the public needs, a collection of these documents is needed to be produced to address this concern. In this regard, the Public Information and Assistance Division (PIAD) and Phil DPO Development Project propose the printing of the 2019 NPC Compendium.

II. PURPOSE OF THE PROCUREMENT

The compendium aims to:

- serve as a source of reference for dedicated Data Protection Officers, industries, privacy advocates, students of privacy and anyone interested in data protection issues and privacy governance
- provide personal information controllers a guidepost towards the aim of protecting personal data privacy
- help personal information controllers and personal information processors uphold citizens' data privacy rights
